ABOUT SUMANGAL GROUP

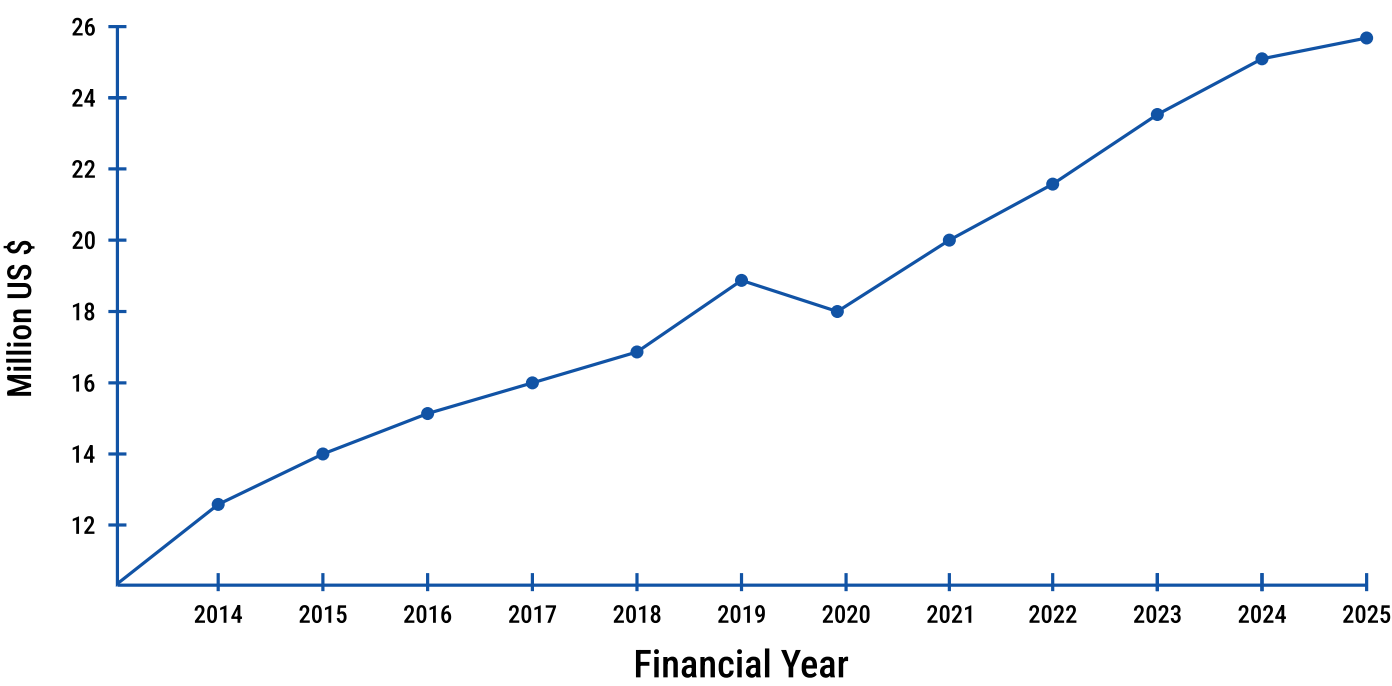

Welcome to Sumangal Group of Companies! Established in 1978, we take pride in being a leading manufacturer of diverse forging and casting components in India. Our journey began with just two units focused on zinc pressure die castings and wristwatch cases. Since then, our reach has expanded significantly, and we now encompass nine diverse business verticals.

At Sumangal, we are dedicated to realizing our vision of becoming trusted partners to our customers. We strive to offer comprehensive solutions tailored to their specific needs, delivering value-added products and services. Our group companies are fully equipped to meet both domestic and international quality standards, ensuring complete satisfaction for all our clients worldwide.
